Self-check — Role Play: Handling Objections & Rejections

Tick each item you have completed. Any blank is a gap to close before your group presents at the debrief.

#	Criterion	Evidences	✓
1	Tom's opening cost concern was correctly classified as an objection, not a rejection.	LU4
2	Sophie used Answer & Ask — a direct answer followed by a genuine re-engaging question.	LU4
3	The offer was scaled to Tom's actual stated priority, not defended at the original price.	LU4
4	All three parts of Feel-Felt-Found were present, with a specific (not vague) testimonial.	LU4
5	The later 'not the right time' line was correctly read as a rejection and handled without pressure, leaving a specific future check-in open.	LU4

Debrief check

The observer can label all three of Tom's responses correctly, quote the line where Sophie validated before answering, name the question that surfaced the real constraint, and describe how the rejection attempt was handled without either caving or pushing.
